To: Brooks Communication
Attention: Clark & Kay

Dear Brooks Communication:

The purpose of this letter is to acknowledge that you are changing the structure of your organization and to thank you for being a great business partner for the past 25 years. I am pleased to hear that Brooks Communication is getting even bigger. I want you to know that we have enjoyed the service and technical expertise that we have received from you and Kay for one quarter of a century. Most importantly I want you to know that we have continued to do business with Brooks because of the personal touch and friendship we have established with you. Running an independent business is not easy and it is relationships like the one we have with you that gives us a chance to compete with the big chains. Thank you for helping us be successful and keeping us on top of our communication needs. We look forward to working with you in the future and being a part of your growing business.

Sincerely,

Jim R. Schumacher
